

Kaufmann & Company

Warm Knit Underwear for Cool October Days

Don't risk your health in delaying the buying of warm Knit Underwear these autumn crisp days. Every wanted kind here, in all weights, contributed from the finest knit mills. Prices to please the most economical.

Ladies' Medium Weight Knit Corset Covers, high neck and long sleeves, tape at waist; special..... 25c

Ladies' Perfect Fitting Knit Union Suits, with or without sleeves, low or high neck and ankle length, fine ribbed, sheer and elastic; special..... $1.00

Children's Vests and Pants to match, fleece lined..... 25c

Children's Union Suits, high neck, long sleeve, ankle length, fleece lined, bleached or unbleached..... 50c

Social and Personal

Society in Richmond and throughout the State is much interested in the marriage of Miss Beattie Temple Gwathmey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Brook Gwathmey, of King and Queen County, and Frank Woolfolk Scott, which took place on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in Zion Baptist Church, Middlesex. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harry L. Carr in the presence of a distinguished gathering of relatives and friends. The church was decorated in goldenrod and the altar was massed with yellow flowers and lighted with tall candles. Miss Ellen Douglas Garnett, a cousin of the bride, played the wedding march from "Lohengrin" at the entry of the bride party, and "Believe Me, If All Those Endearing Young Charms" very softly during the ceremony. Mendelssohn's "Wedding March" was played as a recessional.

The bride entered the church with her brother, Dr. William Ryland Gwathmey, who gave her away. Her wedding gown was an exquisite affair of white satin, charmingly elaborately embroidered in deep pearls and trimmed with duchesse lace. Her long veil of illusion fell from a cap of duchesse lace held in place with orange blossoms, and she wore a diamond necklace, the groom's gift. She carried a presentation bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride roses. The bride's maid of honor, Miss Ella Temple Fox, of Pine Bluff, Ark., wore a gown of palest yellow chiffon and she carried an armful of white roses. Llewellyn D. Scott, of Atlanta, attended his brother as best man.

The bridesmaids included Misses Jennie Hughes, of Richmond; Blanche Fox, of Pine Bluff, Ark.; Louise Tennant, of New York; Mamie Wilson, of New York; and Elizabeth Hays Ryland, of King William County. They wore gowns of white chiffon and lace, finished with yellow satin and carried bouquets of yellow flowers. Mrs. Llewellyn D. Scott, of Atlanta, was dame of honor and wore a gown of white crepe de chine embroidered in white chrysanthemum. Her bouquet was a shower of yellow roses. The groomsmen were Messrs. Alfred Peachy Gwathmey, of Canterbury; Robert McCandlish, of Norfolk; Singleton Walker, of Richmond; Carroll Scott, of Middlesex; O. Emerson Smith, of Woodstock; Leslie C. Garnett, of Richmond; Colonel John R. Saunders, of

Saluda, and William Dunbar Evans, of Saluda.

After the ceremony the guests were entertained at a beautiful reception given at "Cedarvale," the country estate of the bride's brother, Dr. Gwathmey. Decorations were in yellow and white flowers and training vines. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left at once for an extended trip through Florida and Cuba, returning by water from Havana to New Orleans, and thence to their home in Huttig, Ark. Among the out of town guests attending the marriage were Mrs. Wales and Mrs. Sullivan, of Norfolk; Mrs. E.erson Smith, of Woodstock; Mrs. McCandlish, of Saluda; Mrs. Leslie Garnett, of Richmond; Miss Livingston, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Judge and Mrs. O. O. Gwathmey, of King William; Mrs. Josephine Ryland, of Norfolk; Miss Elizabeth Ryland, of New York; Dr. John D. Blake, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Garnett, of Richmond; Mrs. Lassell, of Baltimore; Miss Emma B. Scott, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Davis Scott, of Atlanta; Colonel and Mrs. John R. Saunders, of Saluda, and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kennard, of New York.

The wedding is one of the most important nuptial events of the early fall season, and the ceremony at the church and reception following were very brilliant and notable functions. Both Mr. and Mrs. Scott are prominently related throughout Virginia, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Scott.

Dr. and Mrs. George Ben Johnston are spending several weeks in the mountains of the North. They will later go to Fauquier County, where they will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Walton Fleming at their country place, "Gordonsdale," near The Plains. Dr. and Mrs. Johnston will return to Richmond about the middle of the month. West Virginia Wedding.

Says an exchange from Huntington, W. Va.:

"One of the prettiest marriages of the season was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Beasley, on Sixth Street last week when their niece, Miss Genevieve Garnett Cutler, of Oak Hill, W. Va., became the bride of John Randolph Selden, of Richmond, Va., the ceremony being performed by Rev. Henderson, of the Central Christian Church. The bride entered the parlor on the arm of her cousin, J. V. Quisenberry, who gave her in marriage. She was met at the altar by the groom, who was attended by his brother, C. B. Selden. The other attendants were the bride's cousins, Miss Mabel Maury Burke, of Oak Hill, W. Va., maid of honor, and Miss Sallie Burke Beasley, bridesmaid. The bride wore white satin, with pearl trimmings and lace. She wore a veil caught with lilies of the valley and carried a shower bouquet. The maid of honor wore pink marquisette over pink satin with lace and amber trimmings and carried La France roses. The bridesmaids wore white chiffon cloth over white satin with chrysanthemum and carried white rose buds. Miss Linda Beasley, a cousin of the bride, presided at the piano and rendered wedding march from Mendelssohn, during the ceremony played softly "Thine Own" from Lange. She wore pink crepe de chine with crystal trimmings.

The house was decorated in smilax, ferns and gold.

"Mr. and Mrs. Selden left for a Southern trip. Upon their return they will reside in Richmond.

"The out of town guests were Kirby Selden, of Farmville; Miss Sallie Burke and Miss Mabel Burke, and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Hooper, of Oak Hill, W. Va.; C. E. Selden, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Quisenberry and Miss Genevieve Quisenberry, of Hinton, W. Va.; H. M. Burke, Layland, W. Va.; Mrs. Charles Goodie, of Verdon, and W. J. Woodson, of Richmond."

For Miss Eubank.

An attractive linen gift party was given on Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Ellen Eubank by Misses Fannie Williams, Gladys Livezey, Gertrude Cole and Lucy Dame, at the home of Miss Williams, in Highland Park. The rooms were prettily decorated in pink and the same color scheme was carried out throughout the entertainment. Miss Eubank was presented with a beautiful heart full of "Love and Linen." Miss Eubank's wedding to Conway Cosby is an event of this week.

Eaton-Johnson.

The daughter of Miss Ivy Mabel Johnson, daughter of Clifton Mercer Johnson, and John Sanford Eaton, son of J. H. Eaton, will be celebrated this evening at 7 o'clock. The ceremony, which will be performed by the Rev. W. E. Gibson, pastor of Broadview Baptist Church, will take place at the home of the bride, which will be prettily decorated in palms and fall flowers. Miss Marie Throckmorton will play the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin" at the entry of the bride party and "Hearts and Flowers," very softly during the ceremony, accompanied by little Willard Alley on the violin.

The bride will enter with her father, who will also give her away. She will wear a smart going-away gown of blue broadcloth, with a black picture hat, and will carry a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums. W. W. Ingalls will attend the groom as his best man.

Mr. Eaton and his bride will leave immediately after the ceremony for a wedding trip, and on their return, October 29, will reside at 3001 1-2 East Marshall Street. Their wedding trip will include Washington, Philadelphia, New York, Buffalo and Niagara Falls. Guests from J. H. Eaton and family, ceremony were J. H. Eaton and family, of Alexandria; W. E. Johnson, of Clayville; Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Eaton, of Dallas, Texas; Alfred Carrier, of Columbia; Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Brown, of Washington; F. Finch, of Robinsonville; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Saunders, of

Dunlop Flour

Made in Richmond

OLD FASHIONED RICHMOND

DETROIT GAS RANGE, ALASKA REFRIGERATORS, OLD FASHIONED FURNITURE, SOLD ONLY BY

JURGENS

The E. B. Taylor Co.

Mahogany Clocks, $3.00 to $20.00.

Make Tragle's Drug Store Your Headquarters

During "Fair Week." Welcome to all!

Druggist & Co.

301 East Broad Street.

Special displays of new fall styles in Women's Apparel.

Hopkins Furniture Co.

7 West Broad St.

Cash or Credit.

Hohelmer

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY of putting household goods and china for shipment.

Romney-Sutherland Cherry Corporation

20-22-24 West Broad Street.

Washington, A. S. Smith and Miss Mary Duke, of Ashland.

St. John's Church of King's Daughters will hold its first fall meeting this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the brick schoolhouse in St. John's Churchyard. Officers will be elected and delegates for the State convention in Westfall will also be elected. This is a meeting of much importance, and all members are urged to be present.

Quiet Wedding.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place last Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the home of Powhatan Nash, 117 Fourth Avenue, Highland Park, when his niece, Miss Mary Ruth Kidd, became the bride of Herman H. Smith, of this city. The Rev. T. Merritt performed the ceremony. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue cloth, with hat and gloves to match, and a corsage bouquet of orchids. The parlors were decorated for the occasion in palms and ferns, and only the immediate families and a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. Mr. Smith is a well-known employee of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, and his bride is a popular resident of Highland Park. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left immediately after the ceremony for Norfolk and New York, and on their return will reside at 1924 Hanover Avenue.

In and Out of Town.

Miss Elise Miles, who has been visiting Dr. and Mrs. Francis Smith in Honolulu for several months, has returned to Virginia.

Mrs. Lomax, of New York, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. T. M. Elliott, on West Franklin Street, for several weeks.

Mrs. Henry Logan Golsen has returned to Richmond after spending the summer in the North.

Misses Elizabeth and Agatha Doherty, daughters of Captain Frank J. Doherty, of Lynchburg, are guests of Mrs. J. E. Heindel at 1907 West Main Street.

Mrs. M. E. Hart, of Passaic, N. J., is the guest of her son, Samuel S. Hart, of 204 North Addison Street.

Mrs. Granville Valentine and her little daughter have returned to Richmond after visiting relatives in York, Pa.

Mrs. Wilkins Benedict Shields, who spent the summer camping with a party of friends in the mountains of Colorado, has returned to her home on West Grace Street.

Miss Lillian Betts, of this city, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Betts, in Baltimore.

Mrs. R. Willis Thompson and Mrs. Samuel G. Dew will be guests of Mrs. H. W. Bertram during the United Daughters of the Confederacy convention this week.

Mrs. Louise Miller and Mrs. Miller, who spent the summer at the Henry Clay Inn, in Ashland, have come to Richmond for the winter months.

Mrs. W. P. Fletcher, who has been ill at her home for the past seven weeks, is now slowly improving.

Mrs. W. W. Green, of Bowling Green, is a guest of Mrs. Leslie Reed, in this city, for a few days.

Mrs. Clifton Farmer, of Fredericksburg, is spending a week with friends in Richmond.

Miss Mary Dunn, who has been quite sick for the past two weeks, is now convalescent.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hutchings, who spent September in Ashland, have opened their town house for the winter.

Miss Bessie Dunn, of this city, is

The Carley Company

Successors Cable Piano Co.

213 E. Broad.

visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dunn, in Caroline County.

J. T. O'Neil, of Taylor's Crossing, after being confined to his room at St. Luke's Hospital for six weeks with a fractured thigh, will leave this week for his home.

Miss Mary Duke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin U. Duke, and Miss Fuller, daughter of W. W. Fuller, of New York, are visiting the family of S. T. Morgan, 111 East Franklin Street.

MAN GORED BY BULL.

Seriously Injured Before Infuriated Animal Is Killed.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

St. Albans, Va., October 6.—A vicious bull was killed on the road to Elkton on the Rockingham side of the Blue Ridge Wednesday morning shortly after it had badly gored Harry Reed, an Elkton man. The animal was purchased a few days before in Greene County, by Mox Hirsch, a Harrisonburg cattleman.

When Mr. Reed was but a few feet away it made for him. He started to run, but the animal was too quick for him and knocked him down by goring him in the back of the head under the left ear. As he fell the bull caught him again, ripping a hole in the side of the head. Mr. Reed fell on his back and the bull sunk his horn in his forehead and ripped a hole extending back five inches. At the same time the infuriated animal was pawing him. Mr. Hirsch threw a rock at the animal and missed. Just as it was trying to gore Mr. Reed in the breast, Mr. Hirsch struck the animal in the jaw with a big stone, breaking its jaw and stunning it. He rushed up and pulled Mr. Reed away. The latter was in such a condition that he could not help himself. So Mr. Hirsch picked him up and made for a nearby fence and pitched the injured man over it, following as fast as he could. The bull charged the fence first and then went back to where Mr. Reed's hat was lying in a pool of blood and tore it to pieces. Mr. Lam, who had the gun, was a short distance away and fired about this time. He fired three shots into the animal before killing it.

Mr. Hirsch reached the scene shortly afterward and rushed Mr. Reed to Elkton for medical treatment. He is recovering from his frightful injuries, a phone message stated to-day.

St. James Episcopal Church, which is connected with district No. 8 of the archdiocese of the Blue Ridge—the Blue Ridge Mission—was dedicated last Sunday by Bishop Gibson. Archdeacon Frederick W. Neve preached the sermon. A class of five was confirmed by the bishop, the oldest member being more than eighty years old. St. James Church is a pretty little Gothic structure. It was built entirely from contributions from private sources, not a cent coming from the general mission fund of the church. The first money contributed came from a woman who gave her jewels to be sold and instructed that the proceeds be turned over to Archdeacon Neve to be used in his mountain work. At this mission besides the church are a home for the deafness and nurses and a hospital. Rev. Willis M. Cleveland is the rector in charge of the district, and in his five years' incumbency he has made an experimental work permanent. St. James stands on the side of the mountain six miles from Standardsville.

Harrison J. Wood and Miss Susan H. Wood were married Wednesday night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Wood, at Celt, by Rev. W. A. Orser, in the presence of a small party of relatives and friends. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, of Albemarle County.

G. F. Dowell has a carrier pigeon which came to him on a few days ago. On one leg it has a silver band with No. 15,576, and on the other No. 1,014.

Deaconess Adwen, of the St. James Episcopal mission, has resigned her position and returned to her home at Rochester, N. Y.

WILL MEET AT HEATHSVILLE.

Next Session of Lee-Jackson Chapter, E. D. C., on October 14.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Heathsville, Va., October 6.—The Lee-Jackson Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will hold its next meeting at Heathsville, October 14. A full attendance is expected and the women of Heathsville have been cordially invited to meet with them. The disease among cattle and horses, which has been here for some time, is decidedly on the increase, and many valuable horses are lost each week, to say nothing of cattle. No one seems to know just what to do, or what it is. In some instances every horse on a farm has died and others lost four and five. The disease makes its appearance first by the animal refusing food, and a stiffness in the hind legs, then a tremulous swelling and the tongue turns black.

Following the trouble with this fatal disease the supervisors of Northumberland, at a recent meeting, adopted an act of the General Assembly of Virginia, to the effect that any person having an animal or fowl to die from disease, should have said animal or fowl examined, and if found to be diseased, or if any person is subject to a disease of this kind on a farm or in a stock

Don't fail to investigate

It is well to note that the INNER-PLAYER brings out the imitations; even though a reproduction of the name and the style of the type used in our trade-mark is the limit of their involuntary flattery.

THE INNER-PLAYER

TRADE MARK

PIANO

is away above comparison with any other instrument containing a player device.

Of course you'll see and hear the INNER-PLAYER before you buy. We invite the most critical investigation.

Saluda, and William Dunbar Evans, of Saluda.

After the ceremony the guests were entertained at a beautiful reception given at "Cedarvale," the country estate of the bride's brother, Dr. Gwathmey. Decorations were in yellow and white flowers and training vines. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left at once for an extended trip through Florida and Cuba, returning by water from Havana to New Orleans, and thence to their home in Huttig, Ark. Among the out of town guests attending the marriage were Mrs. Wales and Mrs. Sullivan, of Norfolk; Mrs. E.erson Smith, of Woodstock; Mrs. McCandlish, of Saluda; Mrs. Leslie Garnett, of Richmond; Miss Livingston, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Judge and Mrs. O. O. Gwathmey, of King William; Mrs. Josephine Ryland, of Norfolk; Miss Elizabeth Ryland, of New York; Dr. John D. Blake, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Garnett, of Richmond; Mrs. Lassell, of Baltimore; Miss Emma B. Scott, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Davis Scott, of Atlanta; Colonel and Mrs. John R. Saunders, of Saluda, and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kennard, of New York.

Saluda, and William Dunbar Evans, of Saluda.

After the ceremony the guests were entertained at a beautiful reception given at "Cedarvale," the country estate of the bride's brother, Dr. Gwathmey. Decorations were in yellow and white flowers and training vines. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left at once for an extended trip through Florida and Cuba, returning by water from Havana to New Orleans, and thence to their home in Huttig, Ark. Among the out of town guests attending the marriage were Mrs. Wales and Mrs. Sullivan, of Norfolk; Mrs. E.erson Smith, of Woodstock; Mrs. McCandlish, of Saluda; Mrs. Leslie Garnett, of Richmond; Miss Livingston, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Judge and Mrs. O. O. Gwathmey, of King William; Mrs. Josephine Ryland, of Norfolk; Miss Elizabeth Ryland, of New York; Dr. John D. Blake, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Garnett, of Richmond; Mrs. Lassell, of Baltimore; Miss Emma B. Scott, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Davis Scott, of Atlanta; Colonel and Mrs. John R. Saunders, of Saluda, and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kennard, of New York.

Saluda, and William Dunbar Evans, of Saluda.

After the ceremony the guests were entertained at a beautiful reception given at "Cedarvale," the country estate of the bride's brother, Dr. Gwathmey. Decorations were in yellow and white flowers and training vines. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left at once for an extended trip through Florida and Cuba, returning by water from Havana to New Orleans, and thence to their home in Huttig, Ark. Among the out of town guests attending the marriage were Mrs. Wales and Mrs. Sullivan, of Norfolk; Mrs. E.erson Smith, of Woodstock; Mrs. McCandlish, of Saluda; Mrs. Leslie Garnett, of Richmond; Miss Livingston, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Judge and Mrs. O. O. Gwathmey, of King William; Mrs. Josephine Ryland, of Norfolk; Miss Elizabeth Ryland, of New York; Dr. John D. Blake, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Garnett, of Richmond; Mrs. Lassell, of Baltimore; Miss Emma B. Scott, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Davis Scott, of Atlanta; Colonel and Mrs. John R. Saunders, of Saluda, and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kennard, of New York.

THALIMMER'S

On Monday, Wednesday and Friday

We will sponge and shrink dress goods of all kinds. Quick delivery guaranteed.

J. B. Mosby & Co.

New Charmeuse $19.75

Gowns.....

Beautiful styles.

REINACH, Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET

MILLINERY—Women's and Misses' Outer Apparel.

Coles Hot Blast Heaters

at

Jones Bros. & Co. Inc.

1418-1420 E. Main St.

BUY LEATHER GOODS AT ROUNTREE'S

703 E. BROAD ST.

Furniture, Carpets and Stoves

ROTHERT & CO.

Fourth and Broad

The Hamilton Watch

has many advantages, not only over foreign, but American watches.

Cost only $15.00 and up.

Smith & Webster

Time Societies. - 612 E. Main Street.

Don't fail to investigate

It is well to note that the INNER-PLAYER brings out the imitations; even though a reproduction of the name and the style of the type used in our trade-mark is the limit of their involuntary flattery.

THE INNER-PLAYER

TRADE MARK

PIANO

is away above comparison with any other instrument containing a player device.

Of course you'll see and hear the INNER-PLAYER before you buy. We invite the most critical investigation.

The Carley Company

Successors Cable Piano Co.

213 E. Broad.

visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Dunn, in Caroline County.

J. T. O'Neil, of Taylor's Crossing, after being confined to his room at St. Luke's Hospital for six weeks with a fractured thigh, will leave this week for his home.

Miss Mary Duke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin U. Duke, and Miss Fuller, daughter of W. W. Fuller, of New York, are visiting the family of S. T. Morgan, 111 East Franklin Street.

MAN GORED BY BULL.

Seriously Injured Before Infuriated Animal Is Killed.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

St. Albans, Va., October 6.—A vicious bull was killed on the road to Elkton on the Rockingham side of the Blue Ridge Wednesday morning shortly after it had badly gored Harry Reed, an Elkton man. The animal was purchased a few days before in Greene County, by Mox Hirsch, a Harrisonburg cattleman.

When Mr. Reed was but a few feet away it made for him. He started to run, but the animal was too quick for him and knocked him down by goring him in the back of the head under the left ear. As he fell the bull caught him again, ripping a hole in the side of the head. Mr. Reed fell on his back and the bull sunk his horn in his forehead and ripped a hole extending back five inches. At the same time the infuriated animal was pawing him. Mr. Hirsch threw a rock at the animal and missed. Just as it was trying to gore Mr. Reed in the breast, Mr. Hirsch struck the animal in the jaw with a big stone, breaking its jaw and stunning it. He rushed up and pulled Mr. Reed away. The latter was in such a condition that he could not help himself. So Mr. Hirsch picked him up and made for a nearby fence and pitched the injured man over it, following as fast as he could. The bull charged the fence first and then went back to where Mr. Reed's hat was lying in a pool of blood and tore it to pieces. Mr. Lam, who had the gun, was a short distance away and fired about this time. He fired three shots into the animal before killing it.

Mr. Hirsch reached the scene shortly afterward and rushed Mr. Reed to Elkton for medical treatment. He is recovering from his frightful injuries, a phone message stated to-day.

St. James Episcopal Church, which is connected with district No. 8 of the archdiocese of the Blue Ridge—the Blue Ridge Mission—was dedicated last Sunday by Bishop Gibson. Archdeacon Frederick W. Neve preached the sermon. A class of five was confirmed by the bishop, the oldest member being more than eighty years old. St. James Church is a pretty little Gothic structure. It was built entirely from contributions from private sources, not a cent coming from the general mission fund of the church. The first money contributed came from a woman who gave her jewels to be sold and instructed that the proceeds be turned over to Archdeacon Neve to be used in his mountain work. At this mission besides the church are a home for the deafness and nurses and a hospital. Rev. Willis M. Cleveland is the rector in charge of the district, and in his five years' incumbency he has made an experimental work permanent. St. James stands on the side of the mountain six miles from Standardsville.

Harrison J. Wood and Miss Susan H. Wood were married Wednesday night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Y. Wood, at Celt, by Rev. W. A. Orser, in the presence of a small party of relatives and friends. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wood, of Albemarle County.

G. F. Dowell has a carrier pigeon which came to him on a few days ago. On one leg it has a silver band with No. 15,576, and on the other No. 1,014.

Deaconess Adwen, of the St. James Episcopal mission, has resigned her position and returned to her home at Rochester, N. Y.

WILL MEET AT HEATHSVILLE.

Next Session of Lee-Jackson Chapter, E. D. C., on October 14.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Heathsville, Va., October 6.—The Lee-Jackson Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will hold its next meeting at Heathsville, October 14. A full attendance is expected and the women of Heathsville have been cordially invited to meet with them. The disease among cattle and horses, which has been here for some time, is decidedly on the increase, and many valuable horses are lost each week, to say nothing of cattle. No one seems to know just what to do, or what it is. In some instances every horse on a farm has died and others lost four and five. The disease makes its appearance first by the animal refusing food, and a stiffness in the hind legs, then a tremulous swelling and the tongue turns black.

Following the trouble with this fatal disease the supervisors of Northumberland, at a recent meeting, adopted an act of the General Assembly of Virginia, to the effect that any person having an animal or fowl to die from disease, should have said animal or fowl examined, and if found to be diseased, or if any person is subject to a disease of this kind on a farm or in a stock

Don't fail to investigate

It is well to note that the INNER-PLAYER brings out the imitations; even though a reproduction of the name and the style of the type used in our trade-mark is the limit of their involuntary flattery.

THE INNER-PLAYER

TRADE MARK

PIANO

is away above comparison with any other instrument containing a player device.

Of course you'll see and hear the INNER-PLAYER before you buy. We invite the most critical investigation.

Saluda, and William Dunbar Evans, of Saluda.

After the ceremony the guests were entertained at a beautiful reception given at "Cedarvale," the country estate of the bride's brother, Dr. Gwathmey. Decorations were in yellow and white flowers and training vines. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left at once for an extended trip through Florida and Cuba, returning by water from Havana to New Orleans, and thence to their home in Huttig, Ark. Among the out of town guests attending the marriage were Mrs. Wales and Mrs. Sullivan, of Norfolk; Mrs. E.erson Smith, of Woodstock; Mrs. McCandlish, of Saluda; Mrs. Leslie Garnett, of Richmond; Miss Livingston, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Judge and Mrs. O. O. Gwathmey, of King William; Mrs. Josephine Ryland, of Norfolk; Miss Elizabeth Ryland, of New York; Dr. John D. Blake, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Garnett, of Richmond; Mrs. Lassell, of Baltimore; Miss Emma B. Scott, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Davis Scott, of Atlanta; Colonel and Mrs. John R. Saunders, of Saluda, and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kennard, of New York.

Saluda, and William Dunbar Evans, of Saluda.

After the ceremony the guests were entertained at a beautiful reception given at "Cedarvale," the country estate of the bride's brother, Dr. Gwathmey. Decorations were in yellow and white flowers and training vines. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left at once for an extended trip through Florida and Cuba, returning by water from Havana to New Orleans, and thence to their home in Huttig, Ark. Among the out of town guests attending the marriage were Mrs. Wales and Mrs. Sullivan, of Norfolk; Mrs. E.erson Smith, of Woodstock; Mrs. McCandlish, of Saluda; Mrs. Leslie Garnett, of Richmond; Miss Livingston, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Judge and Mrs. O. O. Gwathmey, of King William; Mrs. Josephine Ryland, of Norfolk; Miss Elizabeth Ryland, of New York; Dr. John D. Blake, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Garnett, of Richmond; Mrs. Lassell, of Baltimore; Miss Emma B. Scott, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Davis Scott, of Atlanta; Colonel and Mrs. John R. Saunders, of Saluda, and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kennard, of New York.

Saluda, and William Dunbar Evans, of Saluda.

After the ceremony the guests were entertained at a beautiful reception given at "Cedarvale," the country estate of the bride's brother, Dr. Gwathmey. Decorations were in yellow and white flowers and training vines. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left at once for an extended trip through Florida and Cuba, returning by water from Havana to New Orleans, and thence to their home in Huttig, Ark. Among the out of town guests attending the marriage were Mrs. Wales and Mrs. Sullivan, of Norfolk; Mrs. E.erson Smith, of Woodstock; Mrs. McCandlish, of Saluda; Mrs. Leslie Garnett, of Richmond; Miss Livingston, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Judge and Mrs. O. O. Gwathmey, of King William; Mrs. Josephine Ryland, of Norfolk; Miss Elizabeth Ryland, of New York; Dr. John D. Blake, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Garnett, of Richmond; Mrs. Lassell, of Baltimore; Miss Emma B. Scott, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Davis Scott, of Atlanta; Colonel and Mrs. John R. Saunders, of Saluda, and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kennard, of New York.

THALIMMER'S

On Monday, Wednesday and Friday

We will sponge and shrink dress goods of all kinds. Quick delivery guaranteed.

J. B. Mosby & Co.

New Charmeuse $19.75

Gowns.....

Beautiful styles.

REINACH, Inc.

107 E. BROAD STREET

MILLINERY—Women's and Misses' Outer Apparel.

Coles Hot Blast Heaters

at

Jones Bros. & Co. Inc.

1418-1420 E. Main St.

BUY LEATHER GOODS AT ROUNTREE'S

703 E. BROAD ST.

Furniture, Carpets and Stoves

ROTHERT & CO.

Fourth and Broad

The Hamilton Watch

has many advantages, not only over foreign, but American watches.

Cost only $15.00 and up.

Smith & Webster

Time Societies. - 612 E. Main Street.

EMPEROR WISHES OLD LAW REPEALED

Prussia Now Has Rigid Restrictions Against Foreign Jews.

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENAY.

EMPEROR William has been taking counsel with Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg and his ministers, as to the possibility of securing from the Prussian legislature a repeal of the laws of 1847 against foreign Jews. For Russia is not, as so many people believe, the only European power that places all sorts of obstacles in the way of Hebrew foreigners, by reason of their creed and race. In the Kingdom of Prussia, according to statutes enacted in the reign of Frederick William IV., foreign Jews are prohibited, under the penalty of fine and imprisonment, to remain any longer in the kingdom than six weeks, without a special permit granted by the Minister of the Interior. Similar penalties are provided for Prussian citizens who may employ foreign Hebrews in any capacity, without special authorization from each instance from the Minister of the Interior; and how strictly these laws are enforced is best shown by the fact that only the other day the Berlin courts inflicted fines upon a well-known Jewish merchant and Prussian citizen of the name of Max Wolpe, for having in his capacity as president of one of the metropolitan synagogues, employed an Austrian Jew, Morris Miller, as religious teacher of the younger members of the congregation, without obtaining any permit from the Department of the Interior. Elder Wolpe has now been obliged to discontinue the services of Morris Miller, who has been compelled to leave the kingdom, and to return to Austria.

The Kaiser has shown himself extremely liberal towards the Jews. But his subjects—and by that of course I mean the Prussians—do not share his views in this respect; a fact which is strikingly shown by the complete exclusion of Jews from the commissioned ranks of the army and navy. There were some in the war of 1870, and even until the beginning of the present reign. But to-day there are none, this being due to the fact that the officers of the regiment are permitted to pass upon the eligibility of any candidate before he is definitely gassed to their corps, and that they invariably turn down every Jewish name.

In the national legislature of Prussia, in which the higher and lower aristocracy retain a predominant influence, most of the members of both houses, holding commissions in the army, either on the active list in the Landwehr, or in the reserves, the same anti-Semitic feeling prevails, and any bill that the Emperor may cause his Ministers to submit to them tending to repeal the statutory disabilities of foreign Jews, is likely to encounter the same overwhelming defeat that has fallen to the share of other measures initiated by William I.

The matter is all the more serious

Saluda, and William Dunbar Evans, of Saluda.

After the ceremony the guests were entertained at a beautiful reception given at "Cedarvale," the country estate of the bride's brother, Dr. Gwathmey. Decorations were in yellow and white flowers and training vines. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left at once for an extended trip through Florida and Cuba, returning by water from Havana to New Orleans, and thence to their home in Huttig, Ark. Among the out of town guests attending the marriage were Mrs. Wales and Mrs. Sullivan, of Norfolk; Mrs. E.erson Smith, of Woodstock; Mrs. McCandlish, of Saluda; Mrs. Leslie Garnett, of Richmond; Miss Livingston, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Judge and Mrs. O. O. Gwathmey, of King William; Mrs. Josephine Ryland, of Norfolk; Miss Elizabeth Ryland, of New York; Dr. John D. Blake, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Garnett, of Richmond; Mrs. Lassell, of Baltimore; Miss Emma B. Scott, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Davis Scott, of Atlanta; Colonel and Mrs. John R. Saunders, of Saluda, and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kennard, of New York.

Saluda, and William Dunbar Evans, of Saluda.

After the ceremony the guests were entertained at a beautiful reception given at "Cedarvale," the country estate of the bride's brother, Dr. Gwathmey. Decorations were in yellow and white flowers and training vines. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left at once for an extended trip through Florida and Cuba, returning by water from Havana to New Orleans, and thence to their home in Huttig, Ark. Among the out of town guests attending the marriage were Mrs. Wales and Mrs. Sullivan, of Norfolk; Mrs. E.erson Smith, of Woodstock; Mrs. McCandlish, of Saluda; Mrs. Leslie Garnett, of Richmond; Miss Livingston, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Judge and Mrs. O. O. Gwathmey, of King William; Mrs. Josephine Ryland, of Norfolk; Miss Elizabeth Ryland, of New York; Dr. John D. Blake, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Garnett, of Richmond; Mrs. Lassell, of Baltimore; Miss Emma B. Scott, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Davis Scott, of Atlanta; Colonel and Mrs. John R. Saunders, of Saluda, and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kennard, of New York.

Saluda, and William Dunbar Evans, of Saluda.

After the ceremony the guests were entertained at a beautiful reception given at "Cedarvale," the country estate of the bride's brother, Dr. Gwathmey. Decorations were in yellow and white flowers and training vines. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left at once for an extended trip through Florida and Cuba, returning by water from Havana to New Orleans, and thence to their home in Huttig, Ark. Among the out of town guests attending the marriage were Mrs. Wales and Mrs. Sullivan, of Norfolk; Mrs. E.erson Smith, of Woodstock; Mrs. McCandlish, of Saluda; Mrs. Leslie Garnett, of Richmond; Miss Livingston, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Judge and Mrs. O. O. Gwathmey, of King William; Mrs. Josephine Ryland, of Norfolk; Miss Elizabeth Ryland, of New York; Dr. John D. Blake, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Garnett, of Richmond; Mrs. Lassell, of Baltimore; Miss Emma B. Scott, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Davis Scott, of Atlanta; Colonel and Mrs. John R. Saunders, of Saluda, and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kennard, of New York.

Saluda, and William Dunbar Evans, of Saluda.

After the ceremony the guests were entertained at a beautiful reception given at "Cedarvale," the country estate of the bride's brother, Dr. Gwathmey. Decorations were in yellow and white flowers and training vines. Mr. and Mrs. Scott left at once for an extended trip through Florida and Cuba, returning by water from Havana to New Orleans, and thence to their home in Huttig, Ark. Among the out of town guests attending the marriage were Mrs. Wales and Mrs. Sullivan, of Norfolk; Mrs. E.erson Smith, of Woodstock; Mrs. McCandlish, of Saluda; Mrs. Leslie Garnett, of Richmond; Miss Livingston, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Judge and Mrs. O. O. Gwathmey, of King William; Mrs. Josephine Ryland, of Norfolk; Miss Elizabeth Ryland, of New York; Dr. John D. Blake, of Baltimore; Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Garnett, of Richmond; Mrs. Lassell, of Baltimore; Miss Emma B. Scott, of Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. Llewellyn Davis Scott, of Atlanta; Colonel and Mrs. John R. Saunders, of Saluda, and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Kennard, of New York.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a tonic, a regular tonic. There is not a drop of alcohol in it. You have the steady, even gain that comes from a strong tonic. Ask your doctor all about this.

J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Wedding Flowers

Correct, Artistic in Arrangement and Guaranteed Fresh.

At Moderate Prices.

214 Madison St.

HAMMOND

FLORIST

Better School Shoes

for the Money—at

Leymour Lytle

ELEVEN WEST BROAD

HAVE YOU SEEN THE New Method Gas Ranges

—AT—

PETTIT & CO.'S?

Children's White Canvas Button Shoes, $1.00

ALBERT STEIN

KING OF SHOES.

5th and Broad

OUR STORE WILL CLOSE AT 12 O'CLOCK WEDNESDAY (RICHMOND DAY), AT STATE FAIR.

Sydner & Hundley, Inc.

Grace and Seventh

For Oil Cooking and Heating Stoves

214 Madison St.

214 Madison St.